Amsterdam

Cycle around town – in Amsterdam, this is virtually a must. But this is also an excellent city for exploring on foot. Vondelpark affords plenty of room for relaxing, sports and fun, but the most beautiful backdrop in Amsterdam is still undoubtedly provided by the canals and the graceful narrow houses that line the banks.

Hamburg

Huge ships and an unmistakable maritime flair define the atmosphere at Hamburg's overseas port while the St. Pauli district offers an irresistible mix of urban trendsetters and real Hamburg originals.

Copenhagen

Stroll around the famous Nyhavn waterfront district, take a boat trip on the Öresund, enjoy the laid-back maritime flair of Copenhagen – and wave to the Little Mermaid on her nearby island.

Munich

The Bavarian capital has more to offer than its legendary beer-gardens: discover culture and great pubs in the artists' district of Schwabing, relax in the English Garden or succumb to the culinary delights of the bustling food market, Viktualienmarkt.

Paris

Paris, je t'aime! Experience the city of a thousand faces and an irresistible tourist magnet. The charm of French cafés is the perfect place for a breather from sightseeing at any time of the year.

Prague

Enjoy the magnificent panorama across the rooftops of Prague from the huge castle esplanade, then stroll around the picturesque streets and squares. The metropolis on the Vltava is one of the most beautiful capitals of Europe.

Zurich

Vibrant and varied – with a view of the Alps. Wander around the picturesque Niederdorf district, revel in the luxury of the world-famous Bahnhofstrasse or have a lakeside picnic.

Information from A to Z

Booking deadline:

Bookings for all comfort classes can be made right up to the time of departure. Depending on the country of origin, some time restrictions may apply to bookings on the date of departure owing to technical reasons.

Booking period:

Supplements (reservation of the comfort category) for City Night Line trains can be booked a maximum of 179 days in advance. Shorter booking periods may apply to journeys around a change of timetable. If you book a ticket and supplement at the same time, this can be done 91 days in advance (e.g. online bookings).

Carriage of Bicycles:

City Night Line offers bicycle carriage on almost all lines. Bicycles are carried for a charge of EUR 10.00 (routes inside Germany EUR 9.00/EUR 6.00 for BahnCard holders). This also applies to bicycles which have been packed for transport. Further information is available in Germany from the cyclist hotline +49 1805 99 66 33 (EUR 0.14/min for landline calls, mobile phone charges max. 42 ct/min).

Children:

Children aged up to 5 who are accompanied by a paying adult travel free, but are not entitled to their own bed, couchette or seat. Each bed or couchette may only be used by a maximum of 1 adult plus child, or by 2 children.

A separate bed, couchette or seat always has to be booked for children aged 6 or over. Children aged up to 14 pay the supplement for the relevant comfort category for use of their own bed, couchette or seat.

Inspections:

To avoid disturbing your sleep for ticket inspections and passport control, our service staff will take the tickets of passengers in sleeping and couchette cars if necessary – as well as passports / ID cards on international routes with most countries – and return them to you the next morning. Please check that the correct and complete documents are returned to you.

Luggage:

Passengers are allowed to carry hand luggage and one suitcase or travel bag per person. Skis can also be transported free of charge. Luggage can be stored in the space under the beds, couchettes or seats as well as in the stowage areas available. Transportation of luggage which does not fit in these areas cannot be guaranteed. It is more convenient to have your luggage transported to your destination using the courier service.

Passengers with reduced mobility:

Most City Night Line routes have couchette compartments which are suitable for wheelchair users with adjacent washing and toilet facilities. This compartment is intended for passengers who are dependent on a wheelchair. To book this compartment, passengers with a disabled person's ID card require a ticket and a reservation for a 6-berth couchette. An accompanying person can travel free of charge if the disabled person's ID card (issued in Germany) states the category "B". Owing to the limited space, wheelchairs cannot move around in the City Night Line cars.

Passengers' rights:

For information about compensation levels and additional detailed regulations visit www.bahn.de/fahrgastrechte, www.fahrgastrechte.info or call our hotline at +49 1805 20 21 78 (14 ct/min for landline calls, mobile phone charges max. 42 ct/min).

Pets:

Pets can be carried on City Night Line trains only if you book a whole compartment for your private use. Pets are not permitted in the dining car or seated/reclining seat cars. Dogs must be kept on the lead at all times outside the compartment. A flat rate of EUR 30.00 per pet is payable on board the train. Tickets for a pet can also be purchased in advance from Deutsche Bahn.

Power supply:

The sockets in sleeping car compartments are intended only for devices with a low energy consumption (e.g. shavers, mobile phones). Comfortline sleeping cars have a further socket which is also suitable for larger electrical devices (such as laptops). No electric sockets are available at reclining seats and in most couchette cars. City Night Line urgently advises passengers against using medical apparatus and assumes no liability whatsoever in that respect.

Reservations:

Reservations are compulsory for all City Night Line comfort categories. Please note that a reservation for City Night Line does not entitle you to a free seat reservation on any connecting trains before or after your City Night Line journey.

Security on board:

The sleeping and couchette cars have special security facilities which can be used to lock the compartments from inside. The service team will be happy to show you how the system works. Please note that no liability is accepted for your luggage, clothing or any valuables.
